Jack Gilbert Ramsey

May 18, 1939 - March 29, 2022

Jack Gilbert Ramsey ended his earthly journey on March 29, 2022, in Huntsville, Texas at the age of 82 years. Jack was born in Easterling, Texas on May 18, 1939, to James and Irma Pearline Ramsey. When Jack was 1 year old his father died due to Tuberculosis. His Uncle Jess and Aunt Jessie along with his Uncle Charles and Aunt Shirley helped his mother raise him. He was always grateful for their part in his life.

In his younger years, Jack worked in the grocery business, then went to work with Houston Natural Gas Company. He was drawn back into the grocery business and excelled in that industry. After his retirement from the grocery industry, he went to work part-time, for his long-time friend Johnny Foster. He loved that job because he got to work with people every day.

Jack loved to hunt and fish, but especially hunt. He couldn't wait for deer and turkey season. He loved his time by the campfire and would tell his jokes and tell his stories which everyone always enjoyed.

But most of all, Jack was a man that loved his family. He looked so forward to the family reunion every year.

Jack is survived by his daughter Paula Seale and her husband Donn of Huntsville, Texas. His son: Tim Ramsey and his wife Delia of Huntsville, Texas, Gary Ramsey and his wife Elaine of Little Elm, Texas, and Chad Ramsey of Huntsville, Texas. Grandchildren: Jessie, Sarah, Jackson, Christopher, Justin, Melissa, Kailey, Jenna, Brenton, Amanda, and Courtney. Great grandchildren: Cadence, Xander, Grayson, Carson, Ella, Blake, Brooks, Avery, Oliver, Riley, Eli, McKenzie, Kaden, Kamyrn, Dylan, and Madalyn. Brother: Dennis, Donnie, Ronnie, and James. Sister: Janice.

The family will host a visitation from 1pm-2pm on Saturday, April 2, 2022 at The Fellowship of Huntsville Church in Huntsville, Texas. Immediately followed by a funeral service at 2pm. I met Jack sometime around 2008, he was always pleasant, liked to talk and share stories, especially jokes and was very likable and enjoyable to be around. He was an honest person whose word you could count on. He adored his family & loved to hunt and will be sorely missed when hunting season comes around.

I was sure sorry to hear that Jack had passed on to a better lease. I met Jack quite a few years ago here at the hunting lease. I made it a point to stop by the cabin and visit whenever he was there, He was an interesting character, had done a lot of different jobs and had lots of stories. I'll sure miss Jack and will think about him every time I pass by the hunting cabin.
