July 12, 1922 - March 2, 2020

Clarence Edward McGhee, March 2, 2020

Clarence “Mac” McGhee has played his final round of life after completing 97 1/2 rounds. Mac was born to Donald and Eva McGhee on July 12, 1922 in Charleston, West Virginia. He started his career with Union Carbide in So. Charleston, WVA, Transcontinental Pipeline in Houston and retired with Enron Corp. in 1984.

He honorably served his country in the Army from October, 1942 to January, 1946.

Mac loved, and was very proud, of his son, daughter and grandchildren. He loved basketball and golf. He got to experience scoring an “Ace” on hole #7 West at Inwood Forest Golf Club. He loved to talk about his round of golf, shot for shot so you had to allow 30-45 minutes of listening to the replay. He and wife, Wanda, were members of the International Couples Golf, Senior Couples Golf and experienced playing in Mexico, Jamaica, and the Dominican Republic. The following prayer was borrowed, as it sums up the love and integrity Mac had for the game of golf and life itself.

“Almighty God, as we play through our 18 holes of life, we pray that you will give us a drive that’s both long enough to reach our goals, and yet straight enough to keep us out of trouble.

“Help us avoid the traps and hazards of life: nevertheless, should we find ourselves in them, give us the tools, skills and desire to escape them with no penalty. “May we always stay in bounds.”

“Help us to be willing to stand by – and not play through-those in genuine need. May we always play with honor”

“And finally, when we’ve puttied out on the 18th green, we pray that we will have demonstrated the integrity of our character, so that you will judge us worthy enough to join your threesome and play eternally on your heavenly course. Amen”

Mac is survived by wife, Wanda; son, David F. McGhee and wife Cindy, and daughter, Nancy McGhee Sargent. Grandchildren: Dave McGhee, Jr. and fiancé Kelsie Davis; Christopher McGhee and wife Jonna; Jason Nevill and wife Jamie; Logan McClure and Trey McClure. Great Grandchildren: Adam and Mathew McGhee, Nolan and Graham McGhee, Jackson and Juliet Nevill.

Interment will be held at the Houston National Cemetery at a later date.
