“ Ian, I remember when you came to Southport. I was like this guy has style. With your penny loafers and polo sweaters tied around your neck....I knew you were different. We talked on the phone a few times my freshman year and remained friends after that. Still kept in touch through the years. You just sent me a message a few months ago asking “Hello Miss Bowman, how are you”? I’m deeply saddened by your passing. I could tell how much you love your friends, family, and your son. You lived life to the fullest and everyday like it was your last. You will be missed by so many.

“ To the Rogero Family: So very sorry to hear about Ian. He was so pleasant to know and do business with and we will miss him dearly. Ian could have easily done business with many other car dealers and he chose us, and we are grateful, and he was a friend. Please let us know if we can be of assistance and we will be there. Again, our condolences. Mark and the rest of us at Fast Trax Auto Sales.

Sometimes there are no words

Good people make their exit from this planet faster than the evil people! I lack words to express my grief over this tragic loss of the phenomenal human I call my friend! He touched so many life's without leaving a space for doubt in our hearts . I will forever be grateful to GOD for the lifetime opportunity to be a part of your life! My deepest sympathy , and may your soul Rest In Peace.. you better be waiting for me at that golden gate my friend Love from Sarah always “ Ian there are too many memories to count, lots of laughter, a few tears, good times, not so good times, late nights and early mornings. Your smile was infectious and your laugh was unforgettable. I miss you my friend, I miss the talks we have had, the advice you gave, the love for your family, friends, and friends that became family. Watch over us, let your light shine down on us from above, hold down the fort until we get there. Rest peacefully, IanRo!

“ Ian I remember so many joyous times with you. I remember when you were young and always picked on your little brother Sean and I always took his side when you were just doing what brothers did. I remember you as a man in the Navy Seals how proud everyone was of you. I best remember your smile and how it showed your heart. I know you are with Our Lord. May you Rest in Peace. We will miss you!
