“ Aunt Margret. Though not related by blood, I have known Margaret literally my entire life ... and it was not nearly long enough!. My Dad and Bill were best friends (Bill was even the Best Man at my parent's wedding). We shared every New Years Eve together throughout my life. Margaret, no matter what age I was, always knew exactly what to say to me and was always that grownup that just got you! She was incredible, positive, energetic with that contagious spirit and smile tgat made everyone feel so special. As I became an older adult myself, Margaret just became more invaluable as a lifelong friend. She is greatly loved and our hearts will always have a Margaret-sized hole in it.

“ Margaret was my aunt. She married my father’s brother, Bill Johnson. I guess I was around 10 years old when I met Margaret. I remember hearing my family whisper that Uncle Bill had robbed the cradle when he married her! What a beautiful person Margaret was —both on the inside & outside. She was always laughing, friendly, so very kind. I loved her from the beginning. Throughout my life she was always there for me. I remember family reunions, weddings, funerals, and going to her house whenever we went to Huntsville. Margaret was GENUINE. Gary & Barry you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you both. Your cousin,

“ What a sweet Lady!! I meet her and Mr. Johnson back in the 1980s when they had their yearly Christmas arts and crafts show in their home. She was such a GREAT baker/and tole painter and him with his woodwork, they made the perfect couple, You could just see the love they had for one another. I always enjoyed being in their home and visiting with them.
The last time I say Ms. Johnson was at Brookshire not long ago and she had that BIG hug/smile and she said: " come by and have coffee with me and we can catch up on everything".
So, my friend, you keep that coffee pot on and we will get to have that visit one day. But for now, just enjoy being with your love.
Hugs and prayers for the family!!

“ My nephew's first teacher when he came to Huntsville after spending his first 8 years in Hawaii was "Mrs. Johnson." I sent Robert the information about her death, and this is what he sent back: "It's sad to see her go. I still have very fond memories of her tutoring me when I came from Hawaii. She was really my first friend in a strange new world far away from life on the islands. I still miss her. Thanks for letting me know."

Barry and Sherry and the rest of the family, I thought you'd like to know. Margaret was a very special woman! Hugs, Ginger Metz
