“ God our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.
We pray for Joe's wife Ginger and their three daughters, relatives and friends that the Lord will give the comfort and peace.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
may Joe rejoice in Your kingdom,
where all our tears are wiped away.
Unite us together again in one family,
to sing Your praise forever and ever.
Amen.

Joe, rest in the loving arms of Jesus my brother knight and friend.

“ Had the pleasure of working with him in the truck business . I had a crazy idea of getting into the bus business and Joe took hold of it and ran with it reaching great success. The guy was a sales horse. But what I will miss most are his stories of flying and his time at NASA. Joe was the best and I will miss him terribly. My prayers and thoughts to his family. Joe, we will meet again and finish that bottle of wine.

“ My heartfelt prayers go out to this fine family. Joe's passing reminds us all to treasure each day as if it were our last. Good memories shared for a lifetime with family and friends may be one of God's greatest gifts because it allows us to smile even in a time of grief. Keeping his memory alive is a great tribute to a life well lived.

“ I will always remember the great times we had playing cards and dominoes over 50 years ago. You welcomed Bill and I to Texas. The years have passed so quickly and I wish we had stayed in touch. Friends forever!

“ Joe, My Joe and I will miss you greatly. You were a good friend and I know Joe is missing you greatly. Go fishing with Mark Padlecki. Tell him hi for us. You made me smile. I loved picking on you and vice versa. Your dedication to your faith is an inspiration to me. I will hope to be half the faith-filled follower of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Faith as you and Ginger are. Rest in the loving arms of Jesus my friend. Luv, Joe and Deborah.
