“ I was a 5th grader when Tom and my sister Ellen began dating. Tom’s generosity of spirit to this little middle-schooler will remain in my heart forever. Tom was a great parent and also Uncle to Phil who eagerly looked forward to seeing him whenever possible. Gone too soon, may Tom rest in God’s loving arms basking in the powerful light and love he gave his family and those of us lucky enough to have been loved by him.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Tom as a brother-in-law since 1972. Many memories abound involving working on a house, Holiday get togethers, sharing a good joke, or just hanging out, playing some cards and talking cars. I once asked Tom what my next car should be and without blinking an eye he said "Don't go anywhere, let me see what I have on the lot!"

Tom was a kind, quiet yet spirited man, always placing his family first. A protective sort as well as one day when his son was little, he came to Tom saying "Daddy, Brandy (a very large Newfoundland dog) is in our front yard". It was midday and Tom took a look and Brandy turned out to be a bear! Well that was taken care of and the game warden was promptly called.

There are many other great memories that will stay with me and I only had the pleasure of seeing Tom two, three maybe four times a year when they lived in Old Forge. I cannot fathom all the memories that his immediate family must have and can share with each other now and throughout the future. Remember the good times and be comforted. Tom was a gentleman, a quiet, sincere gentleman who will be missed by many. He certainly earned his place in Heaven.

“ My favorite memory of Tom is from a couple of years ago on Halloween. He rented a golf cart and decorated it for the occasion so that he could take his granddaughters trick-or-treating. Caroline had a broken arm at the time, and he wanted to make it easier for her to get around the neighborhood. I will remember Tom as a kind and living family man.

“ I offer my heartfelt sympathy to Tom's entire family during this sorrowful time. Tom was a good and kind man whose devotion to his family was unwavering. I pray that memories of happy times will sustain you during the difficult days and months ahead and that you will be surrounded by the love and warmth of family and friends. You remain in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Tom always put others' needs before his own. He never stopped giving. He truly exemplified what it means to be Christ-like. He was always optimistic, no matter the situation. Tom was the best father-in-law anyone could ever ask for.

“ Hello Grampa! I wish you didn't have to go to Heaven right now. But, I guess Jesus needed you. I miss you so much! I hope you are riding Test Track and buying a 1957 Chevy. I will see you in about 85 years. I miss you terrible.

Catherine
