“ *Dear Falk Family,
Some might say that it is too sad to lose a parent at Thanksgiving time, but think of it as a special time to think of all the ways you are thankful for having such a wonderful father and grandfather. I hope it has also given you family members extra time to be together, share memories and count your blessings as a family. I speak from experience when I say it is hard to lose a parent no matter how old he/she might have been. No one else can ever fill that special spot in your heart, and that is where he/she lives on through special memories. God bless you, Vergie Dotson*

“ We are so sorry to hear about Adam's passing. Our prayers are with all of you in your time of grief. He was certainly a diamond in a family of gems and he will be sorely missed by all. I still tell my kids and husband about the times I remember of the Falk family in High Island. The sweet onions I used to eat like apples with Adam, the times he would give us cold water from his cooler off his work truck and all the good memories of sitting around the front porch of the Falk family residence. It takes me back to a wonderful time. He will be forever in our memories. God be with you. Love, The Stubers

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
