

Agnes H Green

November 15, 1914 - December 27, 2014

December 27 2014 the angels came to The Angel Kissed House and gathered unto God's hosts Agnes Warren Green to live forever in the house of her Lord and Savior.

Agnes, known to her friends and family as Pet, was born on November 15, 1914 in Wood County, Texas to J. S. and Ellie Warren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leo; her parents, sister and brother. She is survived by her son, Johnny, his wife, Barri of Huntsville; grandchildren Michael Green and his wife, Angie, of Huntsville; and Margaret Lisenby and her husband, Kent, of Fort Worth. Additionally she is survived by seven great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren.

Agnes grew up in Upshur County where she learned values of hard work, frugality, honesty and kindness. Agnes and Leo moved to Houston in 1942 where she was a member of Eastwood Baptist Church. She retired from Stewart Information Services in 1971 and moved to Timpson, Texas. There she and Leo were able to return to the farm life they both loved. She was an active member of the Eastern Star and First Baptist Church and the Senior Nutrition Center in Timpson. She moved to Huntsville's Carriage Inn in 2006. Johnny and Barri express their sincere thanks to Lynn Longmire and the staff of the Angel Kissed House for their special loving care of Agnes.

A celebration of Agnes' life will be held at 5:00pm on January 4 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. Burial will be at 11:00am January 5 at Sunset Memorial Park in Gilmer, Texas. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that she be remembered by memorials to First Baptist Church of Timpson.

Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.
