

Alice Faye Holliday

October 12, 1940 - June 24, 2010

Alice Faye Locke Holliday Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow; I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain; I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there; I did not die. “ *Alice was a friendly girl throughout our school days. Alice attended all the reunions our class have had, most recently our 50th reunion. I still can picture her as she looked in high school. It's great to have good memories to remember.
My prayers and thoughts are with her family. I know that she will be greatly missed because she was a wonderful, friendly person who was interested in so many things.*

“ *I am so sorry to hear about Polly. She was always such a loving and giving person. As a child, I knew her as Polly and as I got older I knew her as Alice, but she will always remain my cousin. The blonde with the pretty smile who lived next door to Aunt Vivian. That is how my Dad remembers her. Our thoughts and prayer are with you and your family
God bless you all.

“ Dear Ronnie, Ellen, Rhonda and Ronald - We are so sorry to hear of your great loss. Family was a special treasure to my cousin Polly. She was so proud of each of you and delighted in her grand and great-grand children. I'll always remember that beautiful blonde teenager we visited on Sundays in Arcadia. Alice grew up to be such a kind and thoughtful woman. All your wonderful happy memories will always be with you, just as her love will be. Hugs and prayers.

“ Ronnie and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I can only hope that you are comforted that Alice is in a better place. I know how much she loved her family because she talked of all of you often. For me, losing Alice is also hard. Alice was like a mother, mentor and great friend to all of us who worked with her. She was a very special lady and a great friend and will be missed.

“ *Saddened to hear the new of Alice Holliday's passing. Ellen and to your family, you will be in our prayers. We are happy to have met your mom. There was one thing she always did was if you did not see her in so long, she still said hello and asked how you were. Ellen, you were blessed to have a mom like that. Lots of heartfelt love for you and your family. Will be thinking of you and your family.-

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Alice's passing. She was a wonderful person who had such generosity and compassion for me in my time of need. Although I hadn't spoken with her in many years (she was my supervisor), she always held a special place in my heart. She brought a motherly influence into the office that we all loved and respected and she will be greatly missed. She is with her Father in Heaven now and I hope that her family can find peace in knowing that. God Bless her family and friends.

“ Alice will be greatly missed by so many. She was a true angel on earth! She inspired me to press on in my career and my personal life. I do not feel I would be where I am today without her in my life. She was a great leader and mentor to all around her. I pray that God may send peace and comfort to her family the strength to carry on her legacy! I thank God for having known her and having her in my life. - Patti Cardenas
