“ I'm deeply sorry for the loss of Mandy, your wonderful daughter (or sister or mother or grandmother). I knew her as a very nice, open, generous, giving person, who was also very honest (in a nice way). I appreciated that she welcomed me as a friend when I started seeing her father many years ago. I know that she will be greatly missed by her many friends and family. RIP, beautiful Mandy.

*Mandy was a active and very strong activist, she was not only a talker but also a doer...she believed in Liberty, not only did she protest and volunteer, she was a TRUTH seeker and was not afraid to question things and didn't care what people thought about her for doing so. She was a very strong woman, a daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, great aunt, and wonderful MeeMee. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. Sister you will be missed and this is not goodbye but "see you later"

We became close when we were working in Galveston after the hurricane when we both realized we had a hobby on common. Gambling. Lol. Louisiana and Oklahoma will never be the same. You always kept a cheerful attitude and helped me when i was down. I miss u so much already and will continue to miss u always. I know ur in a better place and will see u again someday. Cousin, I Love You and pray that our families and friends find comfort in everything. Peace* 😎 🕒 ♣️ ♠️ 🎰 🙌 🙌

“ Mandy was a great poker player, she took so many chips from me. We met online, even though I never had the pleasure of knowing her in person, we had many phone conversations. She was a truth seeker like me, and we had that common ground. I miss her posts already. I am sending my condolences to her family. It was so unexpected, I miss her so much.
