“ Amber, my sweet sweet Amber...I am grief stricken-- this all can not be real. We were suppose to grow old together-- We were suppose to be those old ladies who took road trips up the coast flashing truckers. We were suppose to make music together. Why did you ever go away? I thought about you and Cannon everyday-- making plans here in Austin for when you were able to make the move. I was working hard to get a place for us all-- working really hard in school to make all of our dreams a reality-- and now, now my dear friend you have left-- and I am left wondering if I could have done more. Do things like this...just happen? I miss you-- you were always just a phone call away-- and now... well I have been trying to get James to do a sayonce-- he doesn't think it was too great of an idea-- but somehow I think you would have been up for it. Meet me for lunch in my dreams my Amber.

“ *Dear Edith,
I am not sure if you are my old friend and bookkeeper but the name is the same. We are so sorry for your loss. My wife, Dana, works at Conroe's Incredible Pizza Co. If this is you, please call us. I would like to visit with you. Yours truly, David & Dana Corbit & Austin*
