January 20, 1978 - October 22, 2021

Amy Lynne Mashburn, age 43, passed away on Friday, October 22, 2021, in Huntsville, Texas. She was born on January 20, 1978, in Fargo, North Dakota, to Willis "Bill" Beightol, Jr. and Delores (Lawrence) Beightol. As part of a military family, she was raised in Florida, Texas, and California. In 1996, Amy graduated with honors in art from Canyon Springs High School in Moreno Valley, California. She then attended Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas where she earned degrees in Business Administration and Spanish.

On March 14, 2015, she married Roger Dewayne Mashburn. Amy and Dewayne spent every moment together. They enjoyed traveling and going on adventures, working around their home, and taking care of their fur babies. Their love was true for each other.

The Mashburns lived in Huntsville and both worked for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice where Amy served for 17 years.

She was preceded in death by her parents Willis Beightol, Jr. and Delores Divin; maternal grandparents Garlon Lawrence, Sr. and Ann (Kunz) Lawrence; and paternal grandparents, Willis Beightol, Sr. and Alice (Addis) Beightol.

Amy is survived by her loving husband of 6 years, Dewayne Mashburn; stepfather, Albert Divin; sister Julie Weldon; niece and nephew, Hailey and Kyler Weldon; step-brothers Kerry and Shannon Divin and their families, as well as numerous other relatives and friends.

Those that loved her will especially miss her beautiful smile, kind heart, and generous spirit. While it is hard to say goodbye so soon, we rejoice in knowing that she knew Jesus as her savior and that as fellow believers we will all be reunited in Heaven one day.
