“ I often monitor obits to find service women to make sure the family knows to register their loved one in the womens memorial in Washington DC/ Arlington cemetery. Please go to www.womensmemorial.org and follow instructions to register Amy. She may have already done so but if not, as many women veterans are not aware of this, please do so for history for her children. It is free and she will be honored as a veteran as she served her country. Blessings to you during this time of your loss.

“ She was "my little girl" we had a very special bond that even death can not break. I will always remember the wonderful times we had together and forget the trying ones. I prayed hard for her to recover and have another chance at life, but it was not in God's plan for her. No more suffering or pain. Truly a time to rest in peace. Say hello to my Mama and Dad, sister and brother. You are surrounded by loved ones.

I am sorry to learn about this. I was 16 years old and Aimee had a locker above mine. She dropped a book on my head. I never thought that day she would be the first girl I ever said I love you to. Rest in peace Aimeekins.
