“ Dear Mrs. Hoffzimmer,

you don't know me and I do not know you by person, but I knew your husband Andreas when he was a boy.

I am daughter of Franz-Josef Kollbach, known to you from your visits in Germany and friend of your father-in-law Guenter. By my father I did know, how Andreas' life in Texas was going on, when he married you, when he became father for three times and was really successful in his job. I knew – by talking – that you live on a nice farm and that there's beautiful nature all around.

Please believe me, that - when I was informed about the accident - it was for us a shock for days. We (my parents, me and my husband) were deeply terrified about what happened to you and the little ones. We are so sad that your life has changed so abruptly and that you had so little time to share with each other. We can't help you in a „direct“ way, but be sure, that you and the children are included in a lot of prayers at the other side of the ocean!

Monika Kollbach-Buchen

(P.S.: Please give greetings of my father to your parents too, esp. to your father Bill. Excuse my English, please, I'm not so much habituated in writing).

es ist nach wie vor unfassbar, dass Andreas nicht mehr unter Uns ist. In Gedanken bin ich bei Dir und deinen Kindern.

Ich möchte Dir und Deinen Kinder aber auch im Namen der ehemaligen Kameraden des InstZuges der 1./30 Düsseldorf unser tiefes Mitgefühl zum Ausdruck bringen. Alle die ich gesprochen habe waren von der Nachricht geschockt und konnten es nicht fassen.

I want you to know that my heart goes out to you and your precious children. I wish there was something I could say that would take away the pain, but there is not. My prayer for you and your family is that the Lord surrounds you with comfort and peace now and in the days and weeks to come. Andreas will always be remembered as a good man and will be missed. “ I only met Andreas once and he was just the nicest guy. I had dinner with him in Huntsville last year and he was (as you all know) just a great guy. Even though we were not friends he is someone I will always remember, he made me so welcome and was so kind to me. During the course of business I meet many people around the world and he was one of the very best. My deepest sympathy goes to his wife and family who must be just devastated by this terrible loss.
