“ *Dear Lynn and family,
I am keeping you all in prayer and have been since the morning of Andrew's death. I am sorry that I had to rush off to celebrate mass at St. Marys and did not get to meet Justin. In the days to come, if I can be of service to you, please feel free to call on me.
Sincerely, Fr. David*

“ Lynn,
I don't know if you remember me, but I had both your boys at Brookside and loved them both! I think I had Andrew, not only in 6th grade SS, but, also, in Teen Leadership. I have sweet memories of Andrew with those long ole legs and big feet. I used to trip over his feet as I'd pass by his desk and he'd always be so apologetic! We really "clicked," and he knew he could come to me whenever he needed anything.

The thing that stands out in my mind the most about you all is your close knit family. Your boys loved their mom! You were so supportive and always there for them.

You may remember, I lost my Josh in Feb. of 2001, right before his 21st birthday, while he was in college at UT in Austin. My heart breaks for you and I know the pain you are suffering. I wish I knew how to tell you to get through it and your husband and Justin, but I don't. Just stay close together, cry out to God and remember that we all grieve differently. When I saw his name, then his picture, my heart stopped for a second and I was in disbelief. I will pray for you all. Please give Justin a hug for me. I am so very sorry.

Sincerely,
Debbie Lucas (Ms. Cannon)

“ Lynn
I can just imagine how much Andrew looked up to you as a Mother. How much he loved you, and how much you loved him. That love will never, never die.

“ Lynn, A.J., Aunt Angie, Justin, we don't know how to tell you how saddened we are to hear about Andrew, who was so loved. We know that he is in Heaven with his grandfathers, but we are heartbroken that you are suffering this terrible loss. We will continue to pray that you will be strengthened by Our Heavenly Father's love and grace every day. With much love, Paul & Mary Donna (Corso) Bishop “ Prayers and thoughts are with the Corso family during this trying time. Our daughter Ashleigh went to school with Andrew and graduated with him and had many of the same friends as Andrew. I know he will be watching over his classmates and guiding them and keeping them from harms way. May you find comfort in ease in knowing that he has gone home to be Our Lord. God has just received another special angel in Heaven.

“ CORSO WAS ONE OF THE SWEETEST YOUNG MEN I HAVE EVER MET, ALWAYS GAVE YOU A HUG AND WAS SMILING! HE WENT TO THE BEACH WITH OUR FAMILY ONE TIME AND MY DAUGHTER WAS UPSET BECAUSE SHE WANTED ME TO BUY HER SOMETHING AND I TOLD HER NO NOT RIGHT NOW, WELL AS MOST KIDS DO SHE WAS NOT HAPPY WITH THAT ANSWER, SO WITHIN A FEW MINUTES CORSO HAD WENT AND BOUGHT HER THE STUFFED ANIMAL SHE HAD ASKED FOR AND TOLD HER I JUST COULD NOT STAND TO SEE YOU UNHAPPY, AND TOLD HER HE WANTED HER TO SMILE, SUCH A GOOD SPIRIT FOR SUCH A YOUNG MAN, THEY DONT MAKE THEN LIKE THAT ANYMORE! HE WILL ALWAYS HAVE A PLACE IN MOMMA D'S HEART!

“ Words can not express our feelings for the loss of Andrew in the prime of his life. We will always remember the great times we shared together on Bermuda Beach and the Mama Corso meals that Andrew enjoyed so much. He will be in our prayers. God Bless

“ My prayers and thoughts are with his multitude of friends and loving family. Andrew will be remembered as the young man who would do anything for anybody. His heart was as large as his stature. His sweet kind words were always an engorgement. He noticed the little things that made a person smile with delight. Because he cared to notice and love all those around him. His presence in our lives will be sorely missed.

*Much love,
Rachael Fuqua (Christina Ferguson's mother)*
