“ I am sorry just seems inadequate, but I am so very sorry. No parent should ever have to bury their child...I pray God wraps you in His arms to give you strength and to comfort you, now and always. Angie was such a sweet and happy person to work with. We had some fun conversations together. I am praying for you and your family...God bless you all.

“ Remember back in Eighth grade riding in the back of our parents truck going skating when we were going out together . Then playing the Scavenger game in Point Aquarius at her party. Then the party at Lisa Humphries we were a couple where we all started playing spin the bottle. Over all Angie was a sweetheart to me and was very special in them years. Still is special but like after school we all take our own courses and ventures in life. God bless you Angie

“ Angie, you have always been an earthly angel, now you have your heavenly wings that you have surely earned on this earth. You touched everyone you met with your light, that was always surrounding you. We will miss you, but I know "Bossy" is happy to have his momma home. Chris, you and the entire family are in my prayers. I know Angie will be with you, leaving you her love for you. Love, Debbie

“ My dearest friend how I will miss u answering the phone "hey girl". You always knew I had some story to tell u. You would laugh and tell me I'm so crazy. Then we would talk on a serious note, our families, and u would talk to me about GOD. YOU were the best to explain things to me and so patient. I know somehow our conversation will go on just in a different way. I know I am selfish in not wanting to let u go. You brightened the lives of so many, and loved by all who knew u. May God hold u in his arms till we meet again and know I love u with all my heart.

“ Sweet Angie. What is this world is going to be like without you here. I can not make myself even imagine. Such a precious child of God that made everyone feel loved and welcome in her life. So many memories. Laughing all the way to and from work as we carpoled. And work was made fun with you around. I will never hear "Don't break my heart, my achy, breaky heart" ever again without thinking of you. Thank you for being my friend and for all the discussions we had. And boy did we cover so many topics!! Rest in peace my precious friend. I love you!
Chris, Joe and Linda, Joey and Kathy.....if I could take this hurt away from you, I'd do it in a heartbeat.
You guys were an awesome family for her. And I know you cherished her to the moon and back. I love you all too. And please never hesitate to call if you need anything at all.

“ Chris and family, I am so sorry for your loss. She was always the sweetest thing to me and always appreciated me bringing Grandma Mac to see them. Always a sweet smile and I always think of her when I see a coke in the small bottles. She will be missed. You are all in our prayers
