

Ann Choate Burrow

July 23, 1936 - January 14, 2021

Ann Merritt Choate Burrow was born July 23, 1936 in New Orleans, LA to Paul and Sarah Merritt. Ann passed away on January 14, 2021. She is preceded in death by her first husband the Rev. Karl M. Choate, her sister Jane Burrow, and later in life by her second husband Don Burrow. She is survived by her children, Kathie Richard, Paul and Mona Choate, and Jack and Debbie Choate. She was grandmother to Russell and Melissa Richard, David and Shannon Richard, Stephanie Choate, Jennifer Choate, Christopher Choate, Abigail Choate, and Emilie Choate. She was the great-grandmother to Cheyanne Glueck, Glenna Richard, Arthur Richard, and Edwin Richard. She is also survived by her nieces and nephews/bonus children Allison and Byron Callan, Cynthia and J. Kenneth Lota, and Richard and Sandra Burrow; Ann is also survived by her sister and brother-in-law, Travis and Lyn Boyd, and their children, Travis Boyd, Jr., the Rev. Dr. Kevin and Carlette Boyd, and Kendall and Kimbo Boyd.

Karl and Ann served many episcopal congregations around the state of Texas and made many dear friends along the way. She was active and devoted to the Episcopal Church, and particularly the altar guild and the Daughters of the King. In Huntsville, Ann enjoyed attending the Huntsville Rotary Club each week with Don, and was a Paul Harris Fellow. Ann also enjoyed other activities including golf and the Elkins Lake Frog Squad. Ann was fortunate to travel all around the world, but mostly she loved her time with family, and never failed to proudly announce with her contagious smile, "Isn't it nice we can all be together?!”
