

Ann Hall Papadakis

July 28, 1939 - August 2, 2015

Ann Hall Papadakis passed away Sunday, August 2, 2015 at her home in Bentwater, Montgomery, Texas after a two year fight to regain her health. Born on July 28, 1939 in Odessa, Texas to Frank and Dorothy Hall. Ann attended Hobbs High School and received her degree at McMurry University in Abilene before marrying and having two children. Ann studied art for over 45 years, painted oils, and was the former President of the Bastrop Fine Arts Guild.

She also enjoyed spending time with her two children, two grandchildren and numerous relatives and friends throughout Texas and New Mexico. Ann is survived by her husband, Myron Papadakis, her two sons, Wade of Austin, Texas and Nicholas Papadakis, of Los Angeles, California. She has two grandchildren, Justin and Evan Papadakis. She is also survived by her sister, Jane, and her husband Bill Bailey of Wharton, Texas.

She was caring, compassionate, and will be missed by her family and many friends. Travel was something Ann loved. "Her Final Trip West" has begun and her destination is eternity -Bon Voyage with Love -in time we will follow and meet again.

A memorial service will be held at 10 AM , Saturday August 8, 2015 in the Chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, Montgomery, Texas.

In lieu of flowers please remember Ann by supporting your favorite charity in her remembrance.

“ Ann was a dear neighbor and friend. She was also a great teacher and several of us in the community enjoyed her art class. Her talent and ability to encourage helped many of us find a hobby we didn't realize we could enjoy so much. She will be missed.
