“ So sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. I did not know Mrs. Phillips, but wanted to express my condolences. Death is such a difficult thing for us to deal with and comforting words from the bible can help. So may you find comfort from God that he will resurrect our loved ones, John 5:28 and that one day he will do away with death forever, Isaiah 25:8,9. May you also find comfort from your family and friends.

“ To Jimmy and family and to Richard and family.

We are so very sorry for your loss. All of you will be in our thoughts as you work through this difficult time. Please remember that tomorrow will always be a brighter day and that things will get better with time.

“ Dear Aunt Ann..... You left us so suddenly, your thoughts unknown, you left us memories, we are proud to own...gone yet not forgotten, although we are apart, your spirit lives within us, forever in our hearts. We will miss you until we meet again...love you!

“ To all our family....Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. May the God of comfort help you during this difficult time and may the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. Always remember that those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.

Just hold tight to memories for comfort, lean on your family & friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about.
