“ I am so very sorry to learn of Ann's passing, Oh how time slips away from us. I do think of the family often, but then not knowing where most of you are - I get back to my hectic life. I hope you all know that I do love you. Again, my condolences.

DS

Every Advent and Lent I would take her books ('Kneeling in Bethlehem' and 'Kneeling in Jerusalem') down from the shelf and again re-read them and quote from them to my congregation, as I am doing this Easter Sunday. I will continue to do so with love in my heart for this gifted poet. May she see many rainbows as her words live on. Dorothy Shelly
