“ You were in my prayers today, and I wanted you to know so that you will be open to the grace that comes your way. I asked that you feel the love of God surround you like a gentle breeze...that your faith remain unwavering through the challenges ahead...and that hope be the burning light that always guides your way. May the sadness which you experience now be comforted by great memories of a treasured life. Much love, Marshall and Kitty

“ I have many wonderful memories of Aunt Annie and Uncle Hubert coming to our home from Front Monroe in Virginia. Oh, the stories that were shared around my families kitchen table late into the night. “ As much as I love my husband I have loved Jason's family equally and Grandma Annie is certainly a reason I say so. From the moment we met she treated me like one of her own and always asked about my grandmother who thought the world of her as well. Her endearing smile was always a welcome sight on our stops through Huntsville and that infectious chuckle could brighten your day. She raised strong and capable children who went on to have equally wonderful children and grandchildren and I am forever grateful for the family legacy she leaves behind for one of them certainly has my heart. Grandma, you will be missed by many but your memory lives on in each of those who are here because of the life you loved so fully. ❤️
