

Anthony "Peanut" Mearle Morrison

September 6, 1949 - March 7, 2016

2 Timothy 4:7 "I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

Anthony "Peanut" Mearle Morrison, born September 6th, 1949, passed away Monday, March 7th, 2017, at his home in Bedias, Tx.

Peanut proudly worked in the oil fields for much of his adult life. He enjoyed the life of a simple man, enjoying western and John Wayne movies, inventing things, as well as attending the sporting and academic events and achievements of his grandchildren. Above all, he enjoyed his time spent visiting with his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Ethel Jordy, and brother, Samuel Patrick Jordy. He is survived by his wife, Mary Ann Morrison; his sons, Anthony "Tony" Mearle Morrison Jr. and Clinton "Bubba" Ervin Morrison Sr.; daughter-in-laws, Linetta Sue and Marcy Ann Morrison; grandsons, Clinton Ervin Morrison Jr., Dylan Montana Morrison, and Marshal Alan Morrison; and his siblings and their spouses, Henry N. Jordy, George and Brenda Jordy, Mary Ruth and Robert Roark, and Willie and Janet Jordy. A host of many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 6:00 PM on Friday, March 11, 2016 in the chapel at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. The family will receive friends following the service.

“ My 1st knowledge of Anthony was when Mary Ann told her dad and brother that she loved Anthony and they would be married. Their marriage lasted way longer than most, so didn't their love. Everyone loved Peanut and he loved back. With love to Mary Ann and the boy's.

“ Uncle Peanut was always so proud of his family. Mom and I were just thinking about the time that he put all the kids on that white pony...and we all fell off and had the biggest laugh.
