

Anton Ballard

May 27, 1958 - October 23, 2023

Anton Ballard was born on May 27, 1958 in Louisville, Kentucky to John and Dorothy Ballard. He passed away on October 23, 2023 in Huntsville, Texas. He is preceded in death by his wife, Anita Ballard, parents, John and Dorothy Ballard. He is survived by his daughter, Alicia Ballard, grandkids, Mason, Brooke, Brianna, and Landon. His brother Barry Ballard and wife, Petra, and sister, Kathleen Cowart and husband Bennie.

Anton attended M.B Smiley High school and graduated May 28, 1976 in Houston Texas. Anton enlisted in the Army briefly but left when his father passed away. He then started his career as a meat cutter for Kroger. Anton worked for Kroger for 43 years before retiring on his 65th birthday in 2023. Anton had a great passion for rescuing cats and helping any furry kitty cat he came across. He also had a passion for decorating for Halloween and Christmas. He looked forward to these holidays every year just so that he could decorate and put smiles on people's faces. Anton loved music, his family, his cats and Halloween. He was also known as the cat dad. He will be greatly missed by all his family, friends, and his sweet kitties.

There will be a celebration of life for Anton at Los Pericos on November 4, 2023 from 3 PM to 6 PM in Huntsville, Texas. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ I learned that Anton was my neighbor when I saw a missing cat flyer up in the apartments. I told him that I prayed for whoever the person was to be reunited with his kitty. He was very gracious and surprised to hear me say that. He took good care of so many stray cats; it was a job he seemed to love. I hope and pray the cats he took care of will be cared for and not forgotten. He will be missed.
