“ Wow.....well it's really hard to say what I fell right now but I really wish we could've spent more time with eachother. Even though you had a hard life I just want you to know that I loved you and were a great big brother. For the first time in your life you will be able to rest in peace and not suffer.

“ Dear Larry, Sherri and Family, Just a note to extend our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your son. Words in any form won't give you much solace in this time of your grief, but I hope somehow that knowing someone knows the terrible pain you are suffering may lend a small bit of comfort.

Anyone who has never lost a child just doesn't know or comprehend that type of loss. It just is not in the order of things, us old farts are supposed to go first before our kids.

At any note, Larry, if you need someone to talk to give me a call anytime. If I've learned anything it is that eventually time does indeed cure anything. Hang in there.

Love Brad and Kathy
