Arthur Koy Jr. passed away September 16, 2008 at his home in Oakhurst. He was born July 27, 1931 in Houston, TX to Arthur and Mary Sassie Koy, Sr. He grew up and attended school in Houston. After graduating from high school he enlisted in the US Air Force and served in Japan for most of his enlistment. After the service he came back to Houston and attended the University of Houston. He began working for Superior Oil Company as a draftsman until he retired at the time Mobil Oil Corporation bought out Superior Oil. He was a member of the Houston Men's Garden Club. He loved growing things! He met Barbara at a Houston flower shop where she worked. He often went there to buy flowers. He also loved to fish. He had a wonderful sense of humor and was an excellent writer. He was a member of the Abundant Life Church, and he wrote a column in the church newspaper. Everyone enjoyed reading the column because he had such a way with words! “ Dear Barbara - I worked in the drafting department with Art and Richard F. Smith in the downtown Houston and The Woodlands offices before leaving to move to New Orleans. Our department manager was Royce Schneider who was another wonderful person to work with. Art used to give several of the geophysicists a truly hard time just to see if he could get a laugh. I am walking down memory lane now remembering Ed Rain (landman), Johnny Johnston (geo), Jim Froelich, Bobby Jones, Ralph Rice, Sonnamaker, Bob Johnson, Dan Gayle, Tommy Thompson and SO many others - along with Janie Henscey who was the glue of the bunch. I do know that Art was so very happy to have met you and convinced you to marry him. Take care and you & the family are in my prayers.

“ We know that you will miss Art, just want to take time to let you and your family know that we are praying for all of you. I enjoyed working with Art for many years at The Superior Oil Co. He was always ready for a GOOD laugh, with his GREAT sense of humor.

God Bless Him and all His Family.
