“ I just found out about the loss. I am truly without words. Ashley and I became friends around the time she was in hair school. He hadn't spoken in a couple months, for which I feel even worse. Condolences to her family--May they find peace in a Hard time.

“ I am in shock with this news I found out today 5/17/11. I worked with Ashley with the DADS unit here in Austin and was blessed with the short moment we had before leaving to go back home. I know those that worked with her, loved her beautiful smile she walked in with everyday. Thoughts and Prayers go out to the family from us Former State employees with DADS and HHSC.

“ Ashley was loved by so many, more than she will ever know. Ashley did not know the definition of a "stranger". Ashley had the amazing ability to leave a lasting impression with everybody she came in contact with during her shortened life. Ashley's witty humor and caring heart influenced everybody around her. I will miss her more than words can express. I am so thankful for our time together here on earth. Prayers for little Drake and the entire family. Love, Jessy

“ What I wouldn't give to turn back the clock. A do-over. Ashley Brooke, CP and I miss you, we pray for you and about you every single night. We are blessed with the memories you leave behind and all of the moments that you shared with us. We have laughed and we have cried all at your expense. While there are miles of broken hearts, there are also miles and miles of memories that are a part of the fabric of our family. CP and I will keep talking about you every single day, we will laugh with you every single day and we will love you every single day as we have done for 24-years. Thank you for being the stand up sister that you were to your brother. You always had his back. We always had your back too. Until next time. XXOO - all of our love, Mel & CP

“ John and Family,

My prayers are with you during this time.

*“You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her only that she is gone,
or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.”*

Celebrate Ashley's life and all the joy she has brought to yours!

“ *Wendy and family, My prayers go out to you all in this difficult time.
As a mother and also losing a daughter, Only the Lord our God and Time will ease the pain. Your Love for your precious child will always remain deep in your Heart. You will meet again in the next Life and she will be there with Open Arms and with that beautiful smile of hers.*

“ To Ashley's family and her many friends we are so sorry for your loss. She was such a special young lady with a beautiful smile. I found this short poem and felt it said it all:

Life.....so fragile, Loss....so sudden, Heart....so broken,...in the wake of such a loss, we are haunted by things we don't, and may never, understand. Yet the solace we seek may not come from answers. So we look for comfort in the belief of love's everlasting connection. May that love lift you and hold you close, and give you peace.

We loved Ashley as tho she were a member of our family and we will miss her smiling face. We also have many fond memories of her we will keep in our hearts forever. Praying for you during this difficult time. We love you.
