

Ashton Michael Lukas

April 18, 1999 - March 17, 2022

Ashton Michael "Yopi" Lukas

Ashton Michael Lukas was born April 18th, 1999 in Conroe, Texas to Kimmi Sparks and Matthew Lukas. On Thursday, March 17, 2022, this beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, and friend to many, passed away in Huntsville, Texas.

He served 4 years as a US Marine. He will be remembered as a funny, full-of-life, jokester. Michael loved animals, especially cats. He also loved traveling and lived so much life in his 22 years. He had a huge heart and a genuine smile. He enjoyed trips to the ocean, fishing, racing his motorcycles, and dancing (if you can call it that). Michael was all about helping others and a natural protector.

Preceded in death by grandmother Heidi Margo Bosley and grandfather Richard Ellis. He is survived by mother Kimmi Sparks, father Matthew Lukas, step-father Patrick Sparks, step-mother Cheri Lukas, sister Aryan Lukas, brother Aiden Lukas, grandparents Ron Ellis, Janet Ellis, Dennis Lukas, Cecilia Wehunt, Dick Carstens, Steve & Sherry Sparks. Aunts: Brenda "Bree" McCloskey, Mercy Tarter-Mayo, and Melissa "Bird" Ebert. Uncles: Rob McCloskey, Allen Tarter, David Sparks, and Edward "Eddie" Nelson. Future nephew Declan Lukas, best friend Cole Dunn, 1st Platoon Dogs, friends, and loved ones.

“ Kimmi and Family-

Heather told me about Mike's passing and I cannot imagine your loss or pain. My deepest, most heartfelt condolences to you; Michael was such a sweet boy as I recall; full of life and such a character. He will be missed. Sending y'all love, hugs and prayers from Kentucky. Kimmi, if you need an ear, I sent you a message on FB. Same number. Call any time. Your friend from moons ago- Dawn
