“ Mom was "Mom" to so many more than her four birth children! How lucky her family was to have her as their own! I will miss our lunches together and I have to wonder if she will now have any control over Susan including her dog Jenny in the lunches. That was always good for a laugh! Mom, you are the best! XOXOX

“ My condolences to your family. Jane, I remember you well. We went to the East school together. I have often wondered where you moved to. I'm very sorry to hear about your mother.

If you'd like to correspond, please email me.

“ We were sorry to read of Audrey's passing. I know our families have not been in close touch in recent years, but many of my fondest childhood memories include the Purcell family back in Villa Park, IL. I'll always remember Audrey teaching that little dog (his name escapes me) to speak small human words. I swear that dog said mama! :) Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Tom, Shelly, Reid and Riley Galbraith

“ We couldn't believe when we heard that Audrey had passed away. We have so many fond memories and are so glad you stopped by this summer. Susan I don't have your new address will you please e-mail it to us? You know you are always welcome to come to our house in Vinton for some reminiscing. Hugs to all of you.

“ I'm so sorry. I can't believe that Audrey will not be walking by with her dog, or answering the phone when I call. Deepest sympathy to all her family.

“ I want to extend my condolences to the family.

I did not know Audrey although I wish I had, but I knew her mother Bess. I know Audrey's daughter Susan and have exchanged a number of emails over the years with her. Bess lived across the street from my mother in Anamosa, IA. We were cousins as my grandmother's father (James) was a brother to Bess's father (John).

No time is a good time and more specifically during the Holidays. Keep the faith and we will pray for the family.

“ Audrey will be greatly missed by our Del Lago community and I send my deepest sympathy to the many survivors of her large and wonderful family.

Also know that my prayers continue for her beloved husband Ernie, our gentleman golfing "Buddy". God bless all.

“ Audrey was the matriarch of Del Lago and my very dearest friend. We will all miss her so much and can't begin to imagine how Ernie, Susan, Jane, John and Jennifer are holding up. We are thinking of you all and feel so good that Audrey went to sleep only to wake up in a paradise. I can't believe she didn't take us all with her!!! That would have made it perfect. To the family: We love you. Sheila and Jim
