Barbara Scott Rush

December 17, 1937 – March 15, 2025

Barbara Scott Rush was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Barbara touched the lives of many with her warmth, kindness, and unwavering love for her family and friends.

Born December 17, 1939, to Virginia and Lee Burke Walker in Dallas, TX.

Barbara was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Aaron Rush. She was the proud mother of Nancy (Bevin) Brock, Christopher Scott, and Brian (Jessica) Scott; grandmother (4); and great-grandmother (6).

Barbara loved Texas. She was a faithful member of her church, where she found strength and community in her faith. She was also a dedicated volunteer at the local library, sharing her love of books and learning with others. As a master gardener, she found joy in nurturing plants and creating beautiful spaces, a passion that reflected her caring and nurturing spirit in all aspects of her life.

Barbara's presence brought warmth to every gathering, and her kindness extended beyond her family to her many friends and all those whose lives she touched. She will be deeply missed but forever remembered in the hearts of those who loved her.

A celebration of Barbara's life will be held for family and friends who honored her memory and life.

Pallbearers will be Lee Burke Walker, Bevin Brock, Wayne Cummins, Cade

Tremie, Reagan Tremie, and Rhyan Haworth, and Avery Steinmann.

May Barbara Scott Rush rest in eternal peace, knowing she was deeply loved and will never be forgotten.
