“ To the Singletons I was so sorry to hear about your loss. We all find this time of grieving for our relatives extremely difficult. In years that I have known Carl he has expressed nothing but wonderful things about his mother. He has told me so many stories about his family and mother that always put a smile on my face. I'm deeply sadden for my dear friend and I hope that you all find peace and know what heaven has received a very special angel.

“ I don't know where to begin or how to say goodbye to you. You were more than a mother in law to me, you were my friend. Thank you for being so good to me & my babies. Thank you for treating me like a daughter. We share so many memories good & bad thru the years.it will never be the same with out you! Since you left its all i can do to make myself walk in your house. I keep waiting for u to show up there some where in one of the rooms or around the yard or the porch but you don't. I loved u with all my heart & we may bury you in the ground tomorrow but you will live forever in my memories & in my heart i love you mom.

“ There's so much we are all going to miss about you, but...when I think back, I remember a sweet lady who loved her babies and grand babies and great grand babies, and her husband, but I remember most eating her yummy food, her smile, her not holding anything back personality!!! You always knew where you stood with her and she was not afraid to tell it like it was!!! I remember everyone gathering around and her and some other family members singing gospel songs. I remember her& Nolan being the loudest!!!! I loved listening to them. We will always love you! Rest in peace.
