“ Barry was a friend of mine - there is little more needs saying about a man than that. He will be sorely missed. I pray the Lord will hold him close.

“ Barry was so full of energy he was inspirational. He could build or fix anything. He loved to fly and sharing that feeling. And he would open his home and heart to his friends. I am fortunate to feel I was one of those friends. I will miss him dearly and will treasure the memories of the times we shared.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss, may you remember the good memories and find a comforting peace

“ Barry was a fellow member of the Houston Hang Gliding club when I started to fly. He gave me needed advice in handling a hang glider that probably saved me from injuries. Our sport and I will carry him in fond memories.
