

Bernard James Klawinsky

February 2, 1944 - August 29, 2024

Bernard James Klawinsky, age 80, met Jesus face to face on August 29, 2024. He was born to parents Joseph and Pearl Klawinsky on February 2, 1944 in Anderson, Texas.

Bernard grew up loving the outdoors and that continued into adulthood. He loved hunting and fishing and just being in nature. In the early 60's, he went to work for TxDot and would continue on that career path until his retirement in 2001. He held the assistant supervisor position for TxDot in Walker County for many years and one of his earliest jobs was to help build I-45. After his retirement from TxDot, he went to work for Walker County Precinct 2 and retired from there in 2011.

Later in life, he found an avid love of the outdoors in a different way and one of his favorite pastimes became working/playing on his backhoe. He was a New Waverly City Council member for many years. Bernard was a long-time member of the St. Joseph Catholic Church in New Waverly. He will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

Bernard is preceded in death by his parents, first wife Clara Klawinsky, brother Andrew Klawinsky and step-son Michael Myers. He is survived by his wife Marian Klawinsky; sons Mark Klawinsky (wife Kristie) and Jason Klawinsky (wife Amy); step-children Thomas Myers and Mary Myers; grandchildren Steven Klawinsky (wife Sarah), Kayla Frankens (husband Chris), Kali Klawinsky, Khloe Klawinsky, Em Myers, Zach Myers, Morgan Myers and Madison Myers; great grandchild Charlotte Frankens; siblings Louise Slott,
