

Bettie Jean Moore-Stewart

November 29, 1941 - June 14, 2012

Betty Jean Moore-Stewart Betty Jean Moore-Stewart, 70, of Huntsville, Texas, passed away on June 10, 2012. Betty was born on November 29, 1941 in Maywood, California, to Leo and Bettie Moore. She graduated from Cypress High School, a school district where her mother was a 2nd grade teacher and her father a counselor, coach and principal. After graduation she attended Sam Houston State University earning a degree in Education. Following in her parent's footsteps she taught at numerous schools and fell in love with Groveton ISD, Texas where she spent many years teaching and loving her kindergarten students. When asked what made her different from other teachers she often said "my classroom is not all about learning, but about love and I teach them to love each other as we learn." One of her favorite pastimes was fishing, whether on the family ranch, Galveston, or in Alaska. She also enjoyed numerous trips to see live shows and entertainment. Betty is survived by her loving husband, Wendell Thomas Stewart; her two sons, Jeffery Roy Moehr and Dennis Lester Moehr; and grandson Donivan Lee Moehr. She is also survived by Tommy Stewart and wife Beverly of Huntsville, Texas; Christine Stewart Hartman of Hempstead, Texas; Scott Stewart of Sac City, Wisconsin and sister, Leslie (Sandy) Ray and husband Mike, of Centerville. Betty's extended family consisted of countless friends and students, whose lives were enriched by her generosity, warmth, and spirit. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that flowers be given to a local teacher in her honor. Services will be held Thursday, June 14, 2012, 2:00 p.m., at Sam Houston Memorial

Funeral Home Chapel in Huntsville, Texas with Rev. Reagan Cooksey officiating. Interment will follow at Centerville Cemetery, Centerville, Texas. Mrs. Stewart will lie in state on Thursday, June 14, 2012, from 8:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m., at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home.
