“ Am so sorry for the loss of our Betty. She was a wonderful daughter, wife, mother and the very best sister. She set the bar high for all, her love for Family showed in her caring and cooking. (Who's gonna make the banana pudding for Family Reunion and Church Home Coming) was just one of the many dishes she shared. She continued sharing her faith in the Lord through her service at Center Hill Baptist church. Will miss you forever, my Dear Sister

My Condolences to the Wilson and Currie Family. I'm so sorry for your loss Mrs. Betty. Mrs. Betty and my mother Annie Ruth Walker-Wanza work many years together at COISD School District . Those was the best days eating lunch at school walking to the line and those ladies had so much love for you and your friends.
My God comfort each of you 🙏
