“ Billie Jean Lewis...gosh how I loved that woman. I became friends with Billie back when her family lived in Kermit, TX. We bowled on a league together for many years, & between the two of us I'm not sure which of us was the craziest. She had one of the most contagious laughs of anyone I've ever met, & Billie laughed a lot! She was so much fun to be around!

On one of our trips to the Monahans' Bowling Alley, Billie was riding up front with me. As always, I was running late & a little heavy on the gas pedal. As we sped down the highway, I spotted an eagle coming straight at the windshield. Billie saw it as well & literally went halfway over the front seat heading to the backseat of my vehicle to be with the other 3 bowlers on our team. That eagle hit the passenger's side of the windshield, yet there was no breakage or even a smudge. On future trips it became a joke for us to fly low & let the eagles fly high.

To the family of Billie, please know my thoughts, my love, & my prayers are with each of you. No doubt her entrance to her heavenly home was a beautiful sight as she joined family & friends who had gone home sooner. She will be missed but remember one of these days we will all join with her up above. What a glorious day that will be!

I would like to offer a touch of advice, as it's something that gives me peace in the loss of my loved ones. Whenever you gaze into the heavenly skies at night, look for the brightest star about our vast skies. Upon spotting that brightly, lit star...know that it's Billie Jean Lewis looking down & watching over all her loved ones & her friends.

May the good Lord be with each of you as Billie's earthly life is celebrated. God Bless each & every one of you.

“ I began knowing Bille in 1971 in Pecos, Texas and we became bowling buddies along with becoming great friends; she really was like my sister. She moved away and so did I, but we reconnected with each other when I went to see my mother-in-law at the nursing home Billie was the director; God again put this sweet woman in my life. Life happened again and I remarried and moved to League City, Texas and my daughter, Bobbie, found Billie's facebook page and found that she lived in Conroe, Texas about an hour and a half from me. We then met up soon after we lived so close to each other and have been in each other's lives since then. She is the dearest friend a girl will ever have. I will miss her each and every day that I am on earth. I know Billie will be waiting for me and will have that beautiful smile to greet me when I show up in Heaven! Look forward to seeing you again my sweet friend. Love you, Sharon

There are no ex's in our family. Once in—you never get out (even if you want out). We talked about you before you visited with her. She told me she loves you. ❤️❤️Cindy
