“ *Hugs to you, Barbara and your family. Bill was a strong man and someone that would do anything for you. I can still see him with a twinkle in his eye and a grin when he was teasing you. The hurt in your heart is unavoidable. Know, that with time, the pain will ease and you will begin to smile as you recall the little things that he did and said. It wouldn't surprise us if, right now, he was enjoying a whole batch of peanut butter cookies..... all for him!!
You are in our thoughts and prayers.*

“ *Dear Barbara, Bill and the whole family:
I was so sorry to hear of Big Bill's passing. While I hadn't seen him in years, I have many fond memories of him -particularly how he always made you feel welcome. He was a gruff bear with a marshmallow center. I hope the good memories wrap you in comfort until you meet again!*

*Love,
Suzanne*

“ It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles.
