“ Joy, Lance:

Joy;

I know that Billy Frank appreciated the care and love that you and your children showed Billy Frank during the years you were married. I could tell that he felt at home with all of them.

Lance:

You moving to Willis to be near to Billy Frank and Joy was a very loving thing for a son to do for his father. Your love will be remembered by all of us still around.

I am sorry, and yet happy, that I cannot attend the funeral, and burial in Pearland, Texas.

I remember my brother as seen in Elkins Lakes during our visit when Billy Frank was still in fair health. That is a far better memory than a funeral.

Love,

Mahlon, Vivian, Mahlon Jr., and Maria Elena Gremillion

So sorry to hear about Bill. He was such a great person and friend to us when we lived in the country. Always a smile on his face and joy to be around.
