

Blanche Lenora Barnes Tucker

August 16, 1943 - July 9, 2024

Blanche Lenora Barnes Tucker, born August 16, 1943, in Minden, Louisiana, passed surrounded by her loving family on July 9, 2024, in Montgomery, Texas.

Blanche was a public-school teacher in Louisiana for 30+ years. She began her teaching career in Calcasieu Parish in 1965. Her career also included time in Caddo Parish, Bienville Parish, and Claiborne Parish. She retired as the Special Education Director in Claiborne Parish. Blanche's love for special needs children will long be remembered.

After her retirement, Blanche and Donald enjoyed traveling with their various friends and family. Blanche and Donald relocated to Montgomery, Texas to be closer to their daughter, Shelley; her husband, Scott, and their favorite grandson, Tucker. Blanche treasured her time with Shelley and Scott, but especially loved being "Ganny" to Tucker.

Blanche is survived by her husband of 59 years, Donald; her daughter Shelley and husband Scott; and grandson Tucker; sister Mary Abercrombie and husband Jerry and her nephew Will; sister Mildred Fritch and husband Milton; niece Tina Peters and husband Charlie; niece Stacy Turner and husband Randy and their children Nathan and Katie. Blanche was preceded in death by her parents Rodney and Dorothy Hightower Barnes.

“ Blanche was the first friend I made after moving to Montgomery. We met at church and quickly became Astros buddies. We would text back and forth all through the games. I love you dear sweet Blanche and will miss you terribly. You are one of the sweetest people I have ever known. See you in Heaven one day "Little Sis"

Mrs. Tucker hired me for my first teaching job, in Summerfield. She was a pleasure to work with, and was so much fun on the Baton Rouge trips. She really knew the good places to eat! I'm so sorry for your loss.
