

Bobbie Polke Kile

October 14, 1932 - January 4, 2024

Bobbie Polke Kile went home to be with her Lord on January 4, 2024. She was born in Bellwood, Louisiana to Robert and Trudy Polke on October 14, 1932 and graduated from Provencal High School. She married Buford Deryl Kile on June 3, 1951. They lived in Bellwood, Louisiana until moving to Huntsville, Texas in 2001. Bobbie was a wonderful seamstress and cook, but above all a wonderful mother, mee maw and friend. She and Mr. Kile enjoyed many years of traveling America and serving in their church, where Bobbie enjoyed singing for the Lord.

Mrs. Kile is survived by three daughters Hollie Owens of Phoenix, AZ., Anita Jones (Donnie) of Huntsville, TX, and Rennie Smith (Mike) of Bossier City; grandsons Jeremy Owens, Ron Campbell, Roman Campbell (Erin), Josh Jones (Lauren), and Andy Jones (Tara); great grandsons Ryder Campbell, Shepherd Jones; and great-granddaughter Lake Jones.

Bobbie is preceded in death by her husband, Deryl Kile, parents, Robert and Trudy Polke, siblings Gladys Wilson (Wally), Shirley Cox (Johnny), and Ray Polke (Gail).

The Bobbie Kile family would like to express their appreciation to the staff at Focused Care of Huntsville and Oasis Hospice for their love, care and support. The service of Focused Care and Oasis Hospice was nothing less than remarkable.

A private family graveside service will be conducted in Kisatchie, Louisiana led by Dr. Mike Kirkwood. Memorial condolences to the family may be made at www.shmfh.com.

“ Aunt Bobbie was the last of my aunts/uncles to die. I miss each and everyone of them. I am so sorry about her illness and pain at the end, but I celebrate in knowing that hers was a life that was well lived. She was an outstanding cook and seamstress, and I loved the confidence and joy she had in performing music at church. RIP.

“ Meemaw has been the biggest gift to me. The first time I met her was 8 years ago before Josh and I got married. I had an instant connection with her and she welcomed me into the family like I had known her my whole life. She was the grandma I always wanted and never had. My favorite memories of her were playing games with her, watching her hold and play with our kids, going to her house to see her and have dinner and derby pie, listening to her stories about Peepaw, and playing spa day with her. The way she has loved me and our family has forever changed me. I'm so grateful for the time I had with Meemaw and miss her terribly. I'm so thankful she is now in heaven with her savior. Praying the Lord would be so near to you in the days, weeks, years to follow as you grieve your precious mom❤️ We love you.

“ Couldn't have asked for a kinder, more loving grandmother. What a lady. Love her so much and miss her already, but find plenty of comfort in knowing that to not be here anymore is to be with Christ (Philippians 1:23). What a legacy of goodness she leaves for us all.
