“ We are profoundly sorry about your family's loss.

I am sure it must have been a comfort to Mrs. Hardy at this difficult time to have the love and support of her three children close by.

In reading Mr. Hardy's story, I was inspired to learn that he continued his second career right up to the end of his life. That is the character shown by someone who cherished and mastered life's challenges.

“ May God continue to be with all of you each day. We didn't get to be with him often, but we did witness the love that his family & friends had for him when we were at some family gatherings. May you all be at peace knowing that he is now at rest in the arms of his Heavenly Father, and he will now be watching over all of you. He truly is a Child of God! Our prayers will be with you.

“ We join you in celebrating Mr. Hardy's wonderful life. During this time and the days to follow, may your favorite memories bring you divine comfort and peace. Isaiah 41:10 says "Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, Surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand." Psalms 30:5 reassures us "...Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." May you enjoy your "roses in the winter"...

In His love,
