“ I would like to convey my sympathy to your family in the loss of your loved one. I'm sorry I didn't know Mrs.Foxworth personally, but from what I read I missed out on knowing a wonderful person. I do know what you are going through at this time,I lost my beloved father and a year later my younger brother,this past summer I lost two family members,in seperate traffic accidents,just 5 hours apart. What helped my family and myself was the little notes from family, friends, and those we never met.Also reading the bible was of the greatest comfort,especially in Psalm 34:18 there it reassures us that we are never alone,more so at times like this. Also in John11:11,14-44,here it shows us the wonderful hope we have through the example of Jesus resurrecting Lazarus here on eart for his family to enjoy again. How wonderful that will be when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come forth just as Lazarus did. John 5:25,28. Remember what you learned from her and the experiences you all shared,pass them on to those she loved and her memory will live on in you and them. Take care of yourselves,too, so you can be there for those who love you.

for each twilight — a dawn...
for each trial — the strength to carry on,
For each stormcloud — a rainbow...
for each shadow — the sun...
for each parting — sweet memories
when sorrow is done."
—Ralph Waldo Emerson*

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
