

Brenda Ann Brown

August 4, 1965 - December 12, 2021

Brenda Ann Brown, 56, passed away unexpectedly December 12, 2021 in Huntsville, Texas.

Brenda is survived by her mother, Elva Graham, brother Douglas H. Graham, nieces Adisyn R. Graham, Alexis Graham, her dog Shelby, uncle and aunt Ram & Diane Villarreal. Preceded in death by her husband of 35 years, Bradley John Brown, father, Douglas Riley Graham and grandparents Ramiro and Josephine Villarreal and Maylon and Pearl Graham.

Brenda was offered an Academic scholarship to University of Texas but opted to go to Louisiana to be with her husband. Brenda graduated with honors from Southeast Louisiana with an accounting major in 2004 and worked as a State legislative auditor and for Louisiana state under Pall Grants before moving to Texas.

She was gifted with numerous talents including interior and color design, furniture painting, organizational skills, reading & writing contracts and had a sharp eye for detail. An avid reader, she enjoyed meeting one of her favorite authors Lisa Gardner, while still living in Louisiana. Brenda was very spiritual and loved to listen and read Rick Warren, Author of The Purpose Driven Life. Brenda volunteered in both Coldspring and Huntsville Libraries. This included teaching basic reading and writing to adult illiterate. In 2018 volunteered auditing files and providing recommendations to Thee Hospice. The agency received the first 0% discrepancy for recertification.

Brenda was a quite reserved soul with a great Love for our Lord, her family and adored her niece Adisyn, and on several occasions was all too happy to provide loving childcare and assisted with tutoring during COVID-19 when requested. Her love and willingness to help others were unconditional, whether adults, the elderly, children or animals.

My precious beautiful daughter will be missed by family and friends and is now in God's loving Arms. We will always love you!

A memorial service will be held on Monday, December 20, 2021 at 11:00 am at Restoring Hope Church in Huntsville, TX. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.
