

Brenda Joyce Squires

March 2, 1949 - March 29, 2018

Today is for rejoicing in the name and spirit of Brenda Joyce who would not have wanted this day to be anything but a celebration of her extraordinary life. A voice for the underdog, a CASA advocate who gracefully touched many lives of the children she tirelessly worked for. This was a woman with a heart so big she couldn't help but share it with those facing mental challenges and illnesses with her work through the classrooms and Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. She enjoyed fishing with her husband, Milton as well as dragging him along for the not to be understated adventure of antiquing in Fredericksburg! She has a passion for gardening that extended to a love for all flowers. There was no greater joy for her than being with her precious grandsons Zackary, Austin, and Matthew. Family meant the absolute most to her and she will continue to live through her husband Milton, sister Judy, and her children Michael, KaraAnn, and Rod. Also continuing her legacy will be her nieces as well as great nieces and nephews. Not many are lucky enough to share life with such an amazing woman but everyone lucky enough to know her and love her knew their place with her rooted in love. Having lived such a full life here on earth, now our spitfire we know and love is continuing on her journey in the loving arms of those most precious to her lost along the way. And now knowing how much Brenda enjoyed spinning a yarn, we would like to invite anyone who would like to honor her memory with happy thoughts of her or fond memories to please share them.
