I remember when Sandra Ann and I was little girls and we got to spend one week of summer at Grandma and Grandpa's house at Placid, TX...of course Aunt Brenda was there she was the only one still at home...she slept outside in her iron bedsted and Sandra and I slept with her...all three in one bed...under the stars...awesome...there has been nothing else that compared to that...we also would go swimming in the concrete tank beside the house...there was a rope across the middle of the tank and we would hold on to the rope (since we could not swim) and play for hours. Loved every minute of that time.
