“ Brett, We havent seen or talked in years but you will never be forgotten. Those years you and your family living right down from my parents. I will never forget all the times you helped me in school and making sure I made it home okay after getting off the bus. My condolences to your mother and sister also. We will once again meet again when the time is right.

“ My brother, we just talked in September and wouldn't of ever thought it would of been our last. Always had my back growing up and always was freestyling with me every time we got together. Even though I wasn't able to tell you I appreciated you and always had love for you I'm sure you knew. Until we meet again, fly high we love you!
