Brooke "B" was born on April 8, 1994 in Gretna, Louisiana and moved to Texas in 2003. She graduated from Montgomery High School in 2012. Brooke attended Sam Houston State University & Lone Star College where she was on the Dean's List and graduated with her Associates Degree in Arts/Teaching. She was a 5th grade teacher at the Montgomery 5th grade campus from 2014-2016.

Brooke was known for her amazing sense of humor, her loud laughter and her ability to make anyone smile with her. We will always think of her vibrant spirit and the many memories she left behind for us all to remember. Nothing was more important to Brooke than being Ashtyn's mommy. She loved hanging out with her brother and sister. Brooke always considered New Orleans her home and she went home often to visit not only family and friends, but to enjoy the Mardi Gras and St. Patrick's Day Parades. Her love for anything outdoors in Lafitte was also her joy. Brooke truly left her mark on everyone she encountered and she will remain with us all, through all the funny stories that we will share with Ashtyn to ensure she will never be forgotten. Brooke will be forever in our hearts.

“ I remember when you were born, Brooke. I was pregnant for Brandt. I got goose bumps because I saw this beautiful little newborn. I cried happy tears. Words cannot describe what I am feeling because it all feels so surreal. Godspeed baby girl, I will always remember the first time I saw you for the beautiful newborn you were.
