

Bruce Darmody Larweth

August 7, 1969 - March 2, 2022

On Wednesday, March 2, 2022, Bruce Darmody Larweth passed away at his home in Montgomery, Texas. He was a loving husband, son, brother, uncle, and friend.

Bruce was born in Evanston Illinois on August 7, 1969 to Bruce and Judy Larweth. On October 31, 1997, he married Debbie Dowell Larweth and together they rescued many beloved animals.

Bruce was a proud union member of Chicago Pipefitters Local 597 for many years. He was passionate about cars and an avid gamer. He will be greatly missed for his unique sense of humor and big heart.

Bruce was preceded in death by his mother Judy. He is survived by his wife Debbie, his father Bruce, his sisters, and a large extended family.

Those wishing to honor his life can make a donation in his name at your local humane society

*He was such a happy guy!
Knew him since about 1987.
He loved his Wife so very much! Thankfully we had reconnected on FB. It's May 8 and I am just now seeing that he Journeyed On.
He fought a tough battle!

“Debbie- I’m so sorry for your loss. Bruce was one of a kind for sure! We were good pals in grade school, lost touch after high school, but reconnected this last year. I’m so glad that I was able to speak with him recently. Still that same sense of humor, good spirit, and great conversation. I’m proud to know him and will remember our young years with great fondness.

It's crazy but I grew up with my cousin Brucie; I never knew his middle name was Darmody. He is so dam lucky he is gone right now, because trust and believe... "Cuz" I would never ever let you live that down! And was always looking for more ammo, damn! I miss you cuz. Remember this isn't goodbye this is just see you for now, love you. PS you always had to be first didn't you? 😊
