

Burniece Rogers Harding

March 27, 1927 - February 24, 2018

Burniece Rogers Harding passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 24, 2018. She was born March 27, 1927 in Port Lavaca, Texas to John Rogers and Ollie Levingston Rogers.

She graduated from Port Lavaca High School in 1944, attended The University of Texas at Austin, and graduated from Southwest Texas State in San Marcos with a Bachelor of Science Degree, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Honor Society and Kappa Delta Pi.

She was married to her husband of 56 years, Winfred Harding, and lived in Huntsville, Texas for 60 years, where she taught public school for ten years.

She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, United Daughters of the Confederacy and Friends of the Huntsville Public Library.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Huntsville.

Burniece was preceded in death by her husband, Winfred Harding of Huntsville, five sisters and one brother, and son-in-law Terry Taylor of Lufkin.

She is survived by daughter Vicky Harding Taylor of Huntsville, and daughter Jenny Harding Fricks and husband Fred Fricks of Houston, and numerous nieces and nephews. As she requested, a family burial service will be held for her at Bath Cemetery in Huntsville, Texas.

In her remembrance, donations should be made to First Presbyterian Church, 1801 19th Street, Huntsville, Texas, 77340 or a charity of choice.
