

Burt H. Slaughter

March 4, 1938 - September 29, 2017

Burt H. Slaughter, 79, beloved husband and father passed away peacefully with his family by his side on September 29, 2017 after battling a long illness.

Services will be held on Saturday, October 7, 2017 at 2 p.m. at Pine Prairie Free Will Baptist Church, 80 Phil Wood Road, Huntsville, TX, with a reception following.

Burt was born March 4, 1938 in Huntsville, Texas to Edna Cansler and Julius Byron Slaughter and was married to Laura Edna Warden for 59 years. Burt was a dedicated employee for Schlumberger for 25 years, an owner of several businesses, a trainer, and most recently, an author of four detective novels.

Burt was always known for his great sense of humor, his optimism and teaching nature. He had a passion for flying and enjoyed piloting his small plane. He also enjoyed music, golfing, a good meal, home improvement, writing, and spending time with his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his dear brother James Slaughter. He is survived by his beloved wife, Edna, his daughter Melissa Kerbel and her husband Bill, his daughter Marcy Sasser and her husband Dan, and his daughter Julie Thomas. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Katie, Billy, Marisa, Alexandra, Amanda, and Colton, as well as his sister-in-law Jeanette, and nephews and nieces. He will be missed by everyone whose lives he touched.

In lieu of flowers, a donation to the American Cancer Society or the American Heart Association would be appreciated.
