“ Aunt Irene, Jerry, Ray & Family,

It is with a heavy heart that I realize that Uncle Calvin is really gone from us now. I know that he is finally at peace and free of pain but we will still miss him, all the same. He was always more than an uncle to me and he & Irene were like my guardian angels when I was growing up! Your generosity has never been forgotten & I hope you know that I love you both dearly! His laughter & stories will be missed but I have soooo many wonderful & funny memories of him to keep me smiling in the years ahead! He really was one of a kind!! :) Please know that you have a large family to help you through these days ahead and that you are in our thoughts & prayers! We Love You...
